

The Stars

Brought to you by www.auzform.com.au

We are all believers in the STARS in one form or another.

How many times have you yourself browsed the paper and looked up your STARS for the day? What you may not know is that the day is broken up into 24 favourable time zones (12 day - 12 night) but with a difference to our normal hours. These time zones start from sunset to sunrise.

They are calculated by using the minutes between sunrise and sunset, dividing them by 12 (for the daylight zones) and hence you have "one time zone".

Each "time zone" is represented by a star sign.

There are seven different star signs, one for the beginning of each day of the week.

Saturday - Saturn

Sunday - Sun

Monday - Moon

Tuesday - Mercury

Wednesday - Mars

Thursday - Jupiter

Friday - Venus

The runners whose name or colors belonging to the favourable minutes during the time zone would be at its best in performance and have the "luck in running" with it.

E.G.

Lets say the Melbourne Cup was run during a Jupiter "time zone" then you would select runners referring to :- cathedrals, saints, luck, large animals, far way places, etc..

Or

If you wanted to plant a garden the best time to start would be in a "moon time zone" (relating to water, gardens, growth, food) for the best results.

Located at the top of each race page rated by Auzform is a "TIME ZONE" and runners corresponding to it should be favoured.

Example:

Lets say we are looking for horses to bet on in the First race on a Tuesday.

Sunrise = 5:25 am

Sunset = 7:46 pm

Divide minutes in the day by 12 = $(861 / 12) = 71.75 = 72$ minutes approx per hour.

Mars	5:25 am - 6:36 am
Sun	6:37 am - 7:48 am
Venus	7:49 am - 8:59 am
Mercury	9:00 am - 10:11 am
Moon	10:12 am - 11:23 am
Saturn	11:24 am - 12:34 pm
Jupiter	12:35 pm - 1:56 pm
Mars	1:57 pm - 3:08 pm
Sun	3:09 pm - 4:19 pm
Venus	4:20 pm - 5:31 pm
Mercury	5:32 pm - 6:43 pm
Moon	6:43 pm - 7:55 pm

The section highlighted in bold represents the said first race starts.

This means you need to look for horses that refer to the Saturn time zone.

These include: aged, afflictions, ancestors, bitter, black, boulders, buildings, cold, circles, defeat, dirty, fear, fences, gaols, junk, loss, memories, old, politics, poor, reservoirs, restriction, shortage, stones, watches, winter.

For example: A horse with a name like “Old Winter Blues” would be a strong candidate as it mentions ‘old’ ‘winter’ and ‘blues’ as in loss or fear.
